In The Neutral Zone: SDRCC's Newsletter Goes Electronic

Montréal (Québec) - The 2008 February issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC) is now available online at <http://www.sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters.cfm>. In this edition, you will read testimonials from Canadian sport community members on their experience with SDRCC's resolution facilitation and mediation services, and learn about some of the most recent changes and improvements in the way SDRCC delivers its services to you.

As of October 2007, in an effort to be environmentally friendly, In the Neutral Zone has gone electronic. It will now be published through the SDRCC website three times per year: in February, June and October.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by Sport Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
