In the Neutral Zone: February Edition Now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The February 2009 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC) is now available online at www.sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters.cfm. Thanks to the precious collaboration of the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport, this edition highlights the newly adopted Canadian Anti-Doping Program 2009. The main articles, intended for athletes and for the NSOs, deal specifically with their respective responsibilities in doping prevention and in the management of adverse findings.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by contacting Fredy Juni, Education and Communication Coordinator at fjuni@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by Sport Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
