In the Neutral Zone: February Issue Now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The February 2010 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC) is now available online at www.crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters.jsp. This edition speaks directly to Canadian Team members on their way to Vancouver 2010, providing useful information on dispute prevention and resolution services available to them: the ombudsmen for both the Olympic and Paralympic teams introduce themselves and their role at the Games, and the feature article offers an overview of the on-site operations of the ad hoc division of the Court of Arbitration for Sport in Vancouver.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by contacting Fredy Luni, Education and Communication Coordinator at fluni@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by Sport Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
