The June Issue of In The Neutral Zone is now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The June 2018 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now available online at: <http://crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters>

In this edition, lawyers put forward their top-10 tips on appealing a case to the SDRCC. In addition to the profile of an SDRCC arbitrator and the hiring of a new employee, the newsletter also announces the upcoming launch of the Sport Law Connect Project, which will be piloted in British Columbia next fall. This project aims to connect law students with provincial sport organizations to provide alternative dispute resolution assistance. Information about the public portion of the 2018 SDRCC Mediators and Arbitrators Conference is also available in this edition.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by sending a message to education@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by the Government of Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
