

Clayton A. MILLER

Clayton Miller lives in Kelowna BC where he practices law and enjoys time with his wife and two young boys.

He attended the University of British Columbia where he obtained undergraduate degrees in Physics and Secondary Education. He obtained his law degree from the University of Saskatchewan and is currently writing his masters thesis in law. His thesis focuses on ethics and professional responsibility.

Clayton has been a member of the National Skeet Shooting team for over 13 years. He attended the Pan American Games in 1999 (bronze medalist) and 2003 (4th place). He attended the Commonwealth Games in 2002 (gold medalist) and 2006 (bronze medalist). He also represented Canada at the Olympic Games in 1996.

Clayton is active in the politics of sport in Canada. He currently is a member of the Board of Directors of the Shooting Federation of Canada, is a member of the Canadian Olympic Committee and was an athlete representative to the board of directors of Canadian Sport Centre Saskatchewan for 2005 and 2006.