

Kyra Hudson is a lawyer, mediator, trainer and workplace investigator, who is committed to providing effective and practical conflict resolution solutions to her clients. While obtaining her Bachelor of Human Kinetics degree at UBC, she acted in several leadership roles which led her interest in conflict resolution. Kyra received her Law degree from UBC in 2004 and was called to the Bar in 2005. Kyra's practice is focused on neutral conflict resolution for workplaces and organizations. Kyra works with her clients to determine best practices that will create a respectful outcomes for the people involved. She has assisted clients with matters in the public and private sector, in unionized and nonunionized environments, and in non-profit and for-profit organizations. She often works with post-secondary institutions and has conducted several investigations involving students. Discrimination, harassment, bullying, sexual misconduct and code of conduct breaches are some of the issues Kyra has conducted investigations on. She has completed specialized training in conducting trauma-informed sexual misconduct investigations. Kyra has conducted 100's of private mediations and acted as a BC Provincial Court Civil Roster Mediator for ten years and as a WorkSafeBC Discrimination Roster Mediator for three years. Kyra has been a member of the Law Society of BC and the Mediate BC Civil Roster of Mediators since 2005. Kyra is based in Vancouver BC and works with clients around BC and beyond.

---

#301-1835 Lonsdale Avenue
North Vancouver, BC V7M 2J8
Tel: 604.764.2715
admin@southernlaw.ca
www.southernlaw.ca

---