Reminder - CAS Seminar: Only 7 Days Left for Early Bird Registration

Montréal (Québec) - Only seven (7) days left to benefit from the early bird registration rate for the Public Seminar the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS), hosted by the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC) to be held in Vancouver, British Columbia, on February 11, 2016.

With all speakers now confirmed, the program, the registration form and information on the seminar are available on the SDRCC website at the following link: <http://www.crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/public-conference-2016>. Participants who register no later than December 1, 2015 will benefit from an early bird reduced registration rate. A special rate is also offered to students until that date.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by the Government of Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
