The June Issue of In The Neutral Zone is now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The June 2017 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now available online at <http://www.crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters>.

In this edition, lawyers analyze recent trends in anti-doping cases, more particularly with regards to the threshold test for the athlete to meet in order to prove no fault or negligence under the Canadian Anti-Doping Program. In addition to the profile of an SDRCC arbitrator and mediator, the newsletter also contains several SDRCC news and announcements, including the hiring of two new staff members.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by sending a message to education@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by the Government of Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
