

CRISTY NURSE

T: 613-498-4832

F: 613-498-6290

E: cnurse@hammondllp.ca

www.hammondllp.ca

Cristy practices management-side labour, employment and human rights law, while maintaining a select sport law practice through which she acts as counsel to both athletes and sport organizations. Cristy has appeared in matters before various levels of court, the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario, the Ontario Labour Relations Board, the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada, and other administrative bodies. Currently located in the UK and pursuing a Master of Laws (LLM) from the University of London, Cristy continues to practice remotely with Hammond LLP.

BAR ADMISSION

Ontario 2018

EDUCATION

Master of Laws (Candidate) 2022-23
University of London

Juris Doctoris (Cum Laude) 2013
University of Ottawa

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) 2008
University of Guelph

Cristy holds an Honours Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Guelph. She subsequently attended the University of Ottawa's Faculty of Law, graduating cum laude in 2013. While in Ottawa, Cristy gained broad public sector experience, completing placements with the Department of Justice and the Adjudication Board of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, as well as an internship in the office of the Honourable Michael Chong, Member of Parliament for Wellington-Halton Hills.

A member of Guelph's OUA-Championship basketball team, Cristy went on to become an Olympian and six-time world medalist in the sport of rowing. Both during and after completing her law degree, Cristy trained and competed with Canada's national team. She is a former Rowing Canada athlete of the year and a member of the Halton Hills Sports Hall of Fame.