

Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada
Board of Directors

Kevin Kelly, KC

Voting Member

Kevin is a Calgary lawyer, Chartered Arbitrator and mediator with over 30 years of experience. In 2026 he left private practice and is currently legal counsel for the Government of Alberta.

As a nationally accredited mediator and arbitrator, Kevin is result-oriented and seeks to provide every client with efficient and effective counsel. He has extensive experience in governance and strategic planning and thrives in collaborative environments. He holds a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) with distinction in Administrative Law and Commercial Law from Cardiff University School of Law.

From 2016 to 2025, Kevin was a learning group facilitator and assessor for the Canadian Centre for Professional Legal Education and facilitates modules and workshops about various legal subjects.

Alongside his career as a lawyer, he served on several boards, tribunals, committees and commissions and was the Chair of two Alberta administrative tribunals for six years. In 2026, Kevin was appointed King's Counsel for significant contributions to the legal profession and the community.

Passionate about sports, Kevin desires to make meaningful contributions towards the Canadian sport community.

Connect with Kevin on LinkedIn