Pierre Chabot is a bilingual lawyer who has practiced in the private sector in commercial litigation and corporate law. Since 2001, he has been practicing at Hydro-Québec, where he managed the company's public tenders and electricity procurement contracts, as well as all of the private producers' wind farms in the renewable energy field. He is currently practicing in the Corporate, Legal and Governance group of Hydro-Quebec in compliance and sustainable development. Pierre has been a member of the Quebec Bar since 1991 and holds a Specialized Graduate Diploma in Taxation (D. Fisc.) from École des hautes études commerciales (HEC), in Montreal.

In parallel with his career as a lawyer, Pierre has also been actively involved as a tennis official at the provincial, national and international level since 1988, where he works for several major international tournaments of the ATP, WTA, ITF, namely, the Davis Cup and FED Cup tournaments.

Outside of his professional activities, Pierre has held several administrative positions for the Regroupement des officiels de tennis du Québec (ROTQ) and has chaired the Montreal Bar Tennis Tournament since 2015.
